Description (full)

The Georgian folk song and dance ensemble “Iveria” is distinguished by its traditional approach. All songs and dances are performed in their authentic style. The show, retracing the centuries-old history of the art of dances and music in Georgia is appropriately considered a truly stunning musical event.

The “Iveria’ ensemble shows a wonderful performance. Folk dances at their highest level astonish and fascinate audiences. The woman dancers, reserved in their movements, glide as smoothly as swans.

Each movement is the symbol of good. Their stately partners perform miracles on their toes, a characteristic feature of men’s dances. Each movement is an effusion of their courageous nature.

This is genuine traditional art lacking neither in colourite nor in originality. “Iveria's” performance is bright and full of creative energy.

Every intricate twist of ancient tales is re-enacted through the brilliant art of dancers. This magic, reinforced by the breath-taking pageantry of colorful costumes and sets, incredible lighting and unreal sound, weaves a majestic multihued tapestry of the culture of the Georgia– a feast for the eyes of the spectators.
